Student Control
Lies With Parents
Back Home

California has fallen upon evil days — so evil that adult Californians are losing the respect of fellow adults throughout the nation.

Citizens of that state seemed to think the chancellor of the University of California and Democratic Governor Brown were to blame for the "freedom of speech" rioting by students a while back, and retired both officials from public life.

But today we have news on this page that a relatively small percentage of the U. of C.'s 30,000 students is proposing to tie up the entire student body with a "strike." The students were holding a riotous meeting and the university called in police. In resentment the meeting's organizers put out a general call to students to cut classes.

A curious note in today's developments is the fact that one of the riot organizers is that same Mario Savio who led the "freedom of speech" outbreak months ago. Savio was expelled from the university, was denied re-admission only this fall — and he and some other non-student agitators turn up again today as "spokesmen."

All this suggests that neither Governor Brown nor the university ex-chancellor are entirely to blame for low-rating the good name of the State of California.

No state is any better than its adult citizenry. Students don't count. Usually they aren't of any age. Usually they are not self-supporting. Usually they are wards of their parents and dependent on them for continued attendance at the university.

The question the rest of the country is asking California's adults is:

If your youngsters don't like it at the university why in the world don't you exercise your prerogative of cancelling their college education and forcing them to go to work?

University officials may have been lax in getting around to expulsions, which they finally did but college administrators and faculty officials are helpless in the long run without the co-operation of adults back home.

Public opinion over the rest of the nation is particularly disturbed by the fact that the professional agitator Mario Savio turned up for the second time as the ring-leader of competition on the campus.

Parents have the right — and obligation indeed — to tell Sonny and Daughter Jane either disassociate themselves from such a tramp... or come home to learn the facts of life the hard way — by going to work.

Negroes Pour
Out of L. A.
to Country

PERRIS, Calif. (AP) — More than 1,000 Negro families who left crowded Los Angeles communities seeking a quieter life and a better environment for their children evidently have found both in Riverside County's Perris Valley.

Negroes have been buying 2½ and 5-acre lots in the Perris Valley, 75 miles southeast of Los Angeles, since 1925, but the greatest influx has taken place over the past several years, particularly after the Watts riots in August 1965.

"We decided to get out of LA because kids where we lived were running dope," said Robert Markham, who moved his family into a home west of Perris.

Markham and his wife, Mary, have a son in the Army, a daughter, 18, at San Bernardino Valley College, and a daughter, 16, at Perris High.

Six years ago the Community Association of Perris, Inc., was formed to bring about improvements. Before the group was formed, water was hauled in by trucks. There were no telephones and roads were unpaved.

The area now has telephones, black-top roads, tap water, a park and a community building. Negro families in the 203-square mile valley, which includes Glen Valley, Upton Acres, Woodcrest and Good Hope, come from a broad economic spectrum.

Home prices average from $12,000 to $15,000, but included are clapboard houses — $30,000 domiciles. Land prices have increased.

About a third of the Negro residents are retirees on fixed incomes, but there are many middle-class Negroes and a number of families on welfare. Many commute to Los Angeles, and many work in the Riverside and San Bernardino areas.

The $150,000 Perris Valley Medical Center opened two years ago and is staffed by two physicians, an optometrist and a pharmacist — all Negroes. Eighty per cent of the patients are white.

If Britain Joins
Common Market Her
Costs to Increase

By LAWRENCE MALKIN
LONDON (AP) — If Britain joins the European Common Market the changes in this island's life will be deep and subtle.

Food will cost more. Common Market farmers are guaranteed higher prices than Britain's state-subsidized farmers, and the cost is passed directly to the consumer. Britain will have to change its farm policy to conform. Beef will probably cost more, and so will butter. Most livestock prices may go up because of the higher cost of grain used for feed.

The government estimates this may boost the cost of food by 10 to 14 per cent, although the rise will be spread over several years. The price of imported fruit and vegetables probably will come down. The farmers' union warns the cost will be about $3 a week extra, or almost twice the government's estimate.

The entire British economic pie is expected to grow, and the breadwinner's slice of it should be larger. Greater industrial opportunities in a huge market now fenced off by a 12 percent tariff represent the major argument for going into the Common Market.

The big unknown is whether British firms can compete. Rising British sales in Europe already indicate they can. Of the 10 largest companies in Europe, four are British. They are ideally scaled to compete in the huge Common Market which already has 180 million consumers.

Britain would have to make a host of adjustments in tax and immigration policies. The Common Market's founding treaty provides for free movement of workers on equal terms. For women, the treaty means equal pay, long a sore point in Britain.

The average British worker will discover that he is not necessarily the best-paid or best-cared for in Europe. Fringe benefits — vacations, unemployment compensation, sick leave and pensions — are often better under other European governments.

Britain's prospective European partners may demand that the British pound and its role as a world currency. Devaluation could be one price of British entry. It is more certain that other Common Market countries will be protected from the fiscal shocks Britain absorbs as a price for playing banker to half the world.

Against this must be set another shock to the entire nation if Britain does not enter the Common Market. The British can then count on waking up one day and finding themselves an offshore island, still separated from a dynamic Europe by Channel fog.

Guerrillas'
University for Cuba

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent
Fidel Castro's Cuban Communists have just thrown a new scare into Latin-American governments, says a report from Chile, by announcing the establishment in Havana of a new university for guerrillas. Graduates, the report says, will be shipped around the continent and to Asia and Africa to foment "people's wars."

The project, however, has a look of desperation as far as Latin America is concerned. Communism and guerrilla warriors in general have been faring poorly there. Confusion generated by the world Communist split and increasing confidence of governments in dealing with the threat have contributed to the sagging fortunes of violence-minded revolutionaries in the Western Hemisphere.

For some time, there had been a letup in Castro's program of shipping trained guerrillas to other countries, probably because of Cuba's own vexing internal problems. Now there are reports that new batches of guerrillas are ready, some reportedly trained by instructors who have returned from North Viet Nam.

For the most part, there appears today to be a feeling in Latin America that the threat has subsided considerably.

Directly after Castro came to power in Cuba, guerrilla war was something new for Latin-American military and police to cope with. Since then they have learned much. The job of containing guerrillas is not so difficult as in the jungled Orient. Guerrillas in the Western Hemisphere often have to rely on urban violence and that, with a steady rise in city living standards, has tended to ease off in recent years.

Faubus Files
Against Hike
on Insurance

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval Faubus filed his expected protest of a proposed increase in automobile insurance rates Wednesday, calling the proposal "excessive, unjustified, unfairly discriminatory and contrary to law."

The National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters seeks a 20.6 per cent increase in liability insurance and the National Automobile Underwriters Association asks for a 3.6 per cent increase in collision insurance rates.

The rating bureaus represent more than 500 insurance companies operating in the state. Faubus said in the protest, filed with state Insurance Commissioner Harvey Combs, that the profit and loss ratios allegedly experienced by the rating bureaus were "not substantiated or justified in a proper manner."

California
on Strike

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — University of California students at a mass meeting today called a classroom strike because police had been summoned during a sit-in protesting Navy recruiting on the campus. Some 3,500 of the Berkeley campus' 30,000 students attended the meeting and voted overwhelmingly by a show of hands to strike classes starting at 8 a.m.

The last speaker to urge the strike was Mario Savio, who led the 1964 Free Speech Movement which disrupted classes as students sought greater on-campus political liberty.

Turned down last month when he applied for readmission, Savio was one of six nonstudents arrested by police when they protested the presence of Navy recruiters in the Student Union. He was free in $440 bail when he made his talk.

The mass meeting was organized by the Council of Campus Organizations, one of the FSM's successors, and came after the Associated Students of the University of California had voted 9-8 condemning the administration's use of police and demanding amnesty for the nonstudents and students arrested. The ASUC is the official student government organization.

Earl F. Chelt, executive vice chancellor who signed the arrest warrants Wednesday, said he would not allow nonstudents to disrupt the university's activities. He was acting for Chancellor Roger Heyns, who was out of the state.

Troubles started when a group of students and nonstudents demanded the removal of a Navy recruiting table in the Student Union. Some 400 persons refused to leave after two Navy men and a Marine had gone.

Students declared that off-campus organizations are not permitted by regulations to man tables on the campus. The university administration said government organizations were exempt from that rule.

Thant to Remain as UN Chief

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. Security Council planned to ask U Thant of Burma today to take another term as secretary-general. Many of its members expected he would agree to stay on for another five years.

An appeal that he continue in office was being prepared at successive informal meetings of a five-man drafting committee and the 15 members of the council.

Some council members expressed belief that they could send the communication to Thant this afternoon. They were hopeful he would accept immediately. They said if he did, the council would recommend him for another term Friday morning and the General Assembly would elect him Friday afternoon.

Thant announced Sept. 1 that he had decided not to offer himself for a second term. But before his first five-year term ran out Nov. 3, he agreed to extend his service to the end of the assembly session, scheduled Dec. 20.

Many foreign ministers speaking in the assembly's general debate urged him to serve another term. The Security Council did likewise Sept. 29.

The council members met informally Tuesday and sent a delegation to ask Thant to postpone the announcement of his final decision, originally set for Wednesday. He postponed it to Friday at the latest.

Usually well informed sources said that to encourage Thant to stay, the Soviet Union, France, the United States and East European countries were talking about making simultaneous voluntary contributions toward the removal of the U.N. peace-keeping deficit, estimated at between $30 million and $50 million.

Battle for Grocery Carts

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The wheels of fortune were turning for him, thought Joseph F. Stay, but now they seem to be turning sour.

Stay, 50, an unemployed Burbank resident, collected 530 chrome-plated market carts left by shoppers in his neighborhood, rolled them into his driveway and then asked the market owners for a finder's fee: $2.50 a cart — $1,325.

The owner, Ralphs Grocery Co., in a suit filed Tuesday, asked that he return or pay for 78 of the carts at $27.50 each, and add $1 a day for each day he had them — plus $5,000 exemplary damages.

Stay has threatened to sell the carts in Mexico, the suit alleged. A Superior Court hearing was set for Dec. 8.

28 Die in Great Lakes
Ship Wreck

By GENE SCHROEDER
HARBOR BEACH, Mich. (AP) — Rescue forces searched the storm-lashed area of Lake Huron today where the Daniel J. Morrell sank with a feared loss of 28 lives and only one known survivor. It was the worst Great Lakes disaster in eight years.

Eleven bodies were recovered Wednesday. The Coast Guard spotted a 12th body next to an empty lifeboat but said gale-force winds and huge waves prevented it from recovering the corpse.

More than two days of snow squalls and subfreezing temperatures cut down hopes that the freighter's other 16 crewmen survived by launching lifeboats and riding out the gale.

Its fate concealed by the storm for 34 hours, the 603-foot Morrell snapped in two Tuesday morning and sank in 145 feet of water 20 miles northeast of Harbor Beach, a town at the tip of Michigan's Thumb District.

Twenty-nine crewmen were aboard, said John Hanninen, a legal representative of Bethlehem Steel Co., which had leased the 60-year-old ship.

The blinding snow hampered the search by three Coast Guard cutters over a 400-square-mile area of Lake Huron. The storm grounded Coast Guard aircraft during most of the hunt.

President's Critical Job
New Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — That was a shocker, that hint of a $140 billion federal budget for next year, a jump of $27 billion over the almost $113 billion budget President Johnson asked for this year.

If you were fiddling with the budget, as Johnson is, you'd need more than just an adding machine. You'd need a good public relations staff too.

Johnson, always aware of what public relations men call a good image, has been a pretty good public relations staff himself, at least on budgets and spending. He's still working at it.

One of his first tasks when Congress returns in January is to submit his budget, that fantastic itemized list of how much he thinks the government must spend in the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1967.

Down in Texas, where he is working while recovering from his recent operations, his biggest single problem between now and January will be getting the budget ready.

But he never forgets the image he wants to create — that of a thrifty president, running around chopping at dollar signs — as he has demonstrated in the past and is doing again.

For days the news from Texas has been telling how Johnson has been wrestling with government spending.

Only Tuesday he told newsmen that federal programs totaling $5.3 billion were being canceled or delayed in the current fiscal year ending June 30, for which his budget had been about $113 billion.

He said a whole bunch of advisers had recommended cuts, and that congressional leaders of both parties are all for cutting, which may have been intended to take some heat off him.

While a president gets massaged by critics if he calls for big spending, he also hears endless cries of pain from that part of the citizenry which is affected by cuts in spending.

Wednesday night out of Texas came a story quoting unnamed "experts" as predicting that maybe next year's budget will soar from this year's $113 billion to an American record budget of $140 billion.

Of course, this wasn't Johnson saying it. This was some "experts." You can imagine how thrifty he will look if, when he comes up with his budget, it turns out to be less than that $140 billion the "experts" talked about.

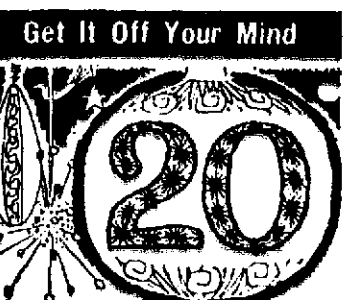

Expenses, of course, are going up: the country and the government keep getting bigger, and there's the Vietnamese war to pay for. But just boosting the budget isn't the only thing Johnson has to think about.

For months he's been juggling the idea that maybe an income tax increase is needed. The aim would be to fight inflation by leaving the people with less money to spend. And the government will need money to finance a budget of $140 billion.

It's just possible that, after heating $140 billion may be the idea that Johnson wiggled and wangled to get it down to perhaps only $135 billion, taxpayers may grunt and groan a little less about a tax increase.

But it has been a long time since the country took such a big budget jump as is suddenly being talked about now. The last time was back in the days of President Harry S. Truman and the Korean War.

Early in 1950, just six months before that war began, his budget was only $42.5 billion. The next year it shot up to $71.5 billion, the next to $85.5 billion, a boost of $43 million. Then it tapered off.

Defense in Truce Not Overlooked

WASHINGTON (AP)—American and allied forces in Viet Nam will use air power if necessary to defend themselves against any Viet Cong violations of the holiday truce, sources disclosed today.

These officials expect the fighting pause to be more difficult for the Communists to control than for the allies.

Consequently, instructions are being given to fit the response to the degree of Communist attack.

In Chicago, Secretary of State Dean Rusk told reporters Wednesday, "Everybody remembers last year and the violations of the truce by the other side. We will have to watch ourselves and keep ourselves in a position to shoot back."

Asked whether he thought the truce might be a step toward peace talks, Rusk said, "We have not seen any basis for that."

Officials in Washington discounted reports that American military men here and in Viet Nam universally deplored the truce of two days each at Christmas and at New Year's and four days in February at the lunar new year.

These officials said it was more difficult for the Viet Cong and the North Viet Nam regular forces to halt their offensive operations for the cease-fires and then resume.

There is firm determination in Washington not to extend the pauses in the fighting unless North Viet Nam makes a reciprocal action. At this point American authorities say it is very hard to visualize any extension of the truce.

Volunteers Lend Help to Florence

FLORENCE, Italy (AP) — Young people from all over Italy and from foreign lands are helping this historic city of books and art re-emerge as it once was.

The rush of volunteers in their teens and early 20s has impressed Italy almost more than any other single aspect of the flood disaster and its aftermath.

Italians work side by side with students from Germany, England, the United States and many other lands.

They are mainly occupied at the museums and libraries, moving the millions of books and archives that remain in mud-matted masses awaiting movement to drying sheds outside the city.

The stench of water-soaked paper and glue bindings is sickening. The youngsters sing as they lift, carry, and pass the precious cargoes into trucks.

night when the Bundestag members of the two major parties agreed to support a coalition Cabinet headed by him to end the 34-day government crisis.

The two parties have been rivals since the republic's birth in 1949. Their coalition was generally considered a temporary expedient until the general elections in 1969, if it holds together that long.

Kiesinger succeeds Ludwig Erhard, whose coalition with West Germany's third party, the Free Democrats, fell apart last year.

The adult world may see their work as an example of sacrifice. But the young don't see it that way at all. For them it is obviously fun — the fun of working in a multilingual group their own age, of putting up with discomforts and hardships that challenge their bodies and spirit, and of taking part in something that is undeniably important and historic.

Judith Rosner and Joanne Newman, each 21, were language students in Florence when the floods hit Nov. 4.

Judith of Glenview, Ill., says: "We stayed for a while after the flood but our parents got so worried they insisted that we leave. Joanne and I went to Rome to fly home but decided no, we missed Florence so much we had to come back and help. So here we are again. We haven't told our parents yet but we will and it will be all right."

As junior partners in the precedent-breaking "grand coalition," the Social Democrats were given nine of the 19 Cabinet posts to be announced later today.

Socialist leader Willy Brandt, mayor of West Berlin, was named vice chancellor and foreign minister.

Kiesinger cleared his last hurdle for the top job early today when the Social Democratic Bundestag members pledged 126-53 to support him. There were eight abstentions. The remaining members of the 202-man delegation were absent.

Kiesinger, 62, for the past eight years minister-president (governor) of his native state of Baden-Wuerttemberg, announced earlier that his own 245-member party Bundestag faction had overwhelmingly approved his Cabinet.

A veteran politician who resigned his Bundestag seat to take the governor's job, Kiesinger has been widely criticized for his Nazi past.

Kiesinger joined the Nazi party in 1933 when he was a 20-year-old lawyer. He says he turned against the party the following year but did not leave it. During World War II he worked in the radio propaganda section of the Nazi Foreign Ministry.

Contractors Ask Labor Restriction

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A national contractors' group, accusing construction unions of "excessive" wage demands, joined in speculation today that the new Congress may act to crack down on organized labor.

The development followed White House confirmation that a presidential task force is studying ways to protect the national interest in major strikes.

And it added to organized labor's fears that the more conservative tone of the new Congress convening Jan. 10 may lead to demands for the first new strike legislation since the 1947 Taft-Hartley Act.

"Certainly the recent elections improve the prospects of securing passage for legislation to curb union irresponsibility," said the Associated General Contractors of America.

Construction unions were the first target of an unsuccessful Johnson administration effort last year to hold wage increases down to White House guidelines of 3.2 per cent a year.

Legislature May Extend New Session

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The director of the Arkansas Legislative Council ventured Wednesday that the General Assembly apparently could extend its 60-day regular sessions and meet about whenever it wants.

Marcus Halbrook told the Legislative Council it was impossible to be certain because of a lack of court decisions on the subject. He said he based his opinion largely on court rulings in other states.

Presently, the legislature normally meets for a regular 60-day session every two years and in special session at the call of the governor. The Legislative Council had asked Halbrook to investigate the possibilities of enlarging on sessions.

Defections by Obituaries Cong Reach New Peak

By ROBERT TUCKMAN

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. officials today reported a new peak in defections from the ranks of the Viet Cong. They said 2,505 returnees came over to the allied side in November for the highest monthly total since the chieu hoi — open arms — program was launched nearly four years ago. The previous high was 2,082 last February.

At the same time, the U.S. Command reported a rise in American and enemy war casualties last week, while Vietnamese headquarters reported a drop in casualties among government forces.

In other developments, high-flying B52 bombers pounded Viet Cong positions only 27 miles from Saigon. On the ground, fighting died down after a one-day spurt.

U.S. headquarters disclosed two new ground operations were under way involving American infantrymen.

The U.S. air offensive over North Viet Nam continued at a low pace as it has for the last three weeks because of rainstorms and generally foul weather.

The U.S. Command reported American troop strength in Viet Nam reached 361,000 by last Saturday, an increase of 1,000 men over the previous week.

The record number of Viet Cong defections reported for November also exceeded a five-week high of 2,336 in March, U.S. officials said.

Despite the claim of record defections, there always has been some question of the accuracy and significance of the statistics. Some observers contend that some returnees are actually refugees from war-ravaged areas or impoverished peasants, from Viet Cong-controlled sections, seeking government food and care.

U.S. officials said that since the chieu hoi program was started in early 1963, more than 45,000 former Viet Cong have turned themselves in to the Saigon government's care. So far this year, they say, there have been 17,726 returnees, an increase of 6,602 over all of last year and the highest yearly total to date.

Marcus Halbrook told the Legislative Council it was impossible to be certain because of a lack of court decisions on the subject. He said he based his opinion largely on court rulings in other states.

Presently, the legislature normally meets for a regular 60-day session every two years and in special session at the call of the governor. The Legislative Council had asked Halbrook to investigate the possibilities of enlarging on sessions.

WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD HAS MEETING

Wesleyan Service Guild No. 2 of the First Methodist Church met Monday Night November 21, 1966 to begin a three night study of James and 1 Peter.

Mrs. H. O. Kyler, Sr. was in charge of the devotionals for the three meetings. Mrs. Kyler gave very inspiring devotionals the first two nights. The third night's devotionals was presented by Mary Louise Copeland.

Mrs. Chris Petre opened the first session with the beginning of James. Mary Louise Copeland and Mrs. Bruce Duke continued the study the second night with the last of James and the first chapter of 1 Peter. The third and final session was given by Mrs. Clyde Davis with the conclusion of 1 Peter.

The study was well received by all who attended. Refreshments were served after each meeting to members and guests present.

THANKSGIVING PARTIES GIVEN AT NURSING HOMES

Members of the Hope Junior Auxiliary had Thanksgiving parties at the three local nursing homes last week.

Those who went to the Memorial Nursing Home were: Mrs. W. C. Bruner, Jr., Mrs. Bill Watson, Mrs. Frank McLarty, and Mrs. Floyd Leverett. At the Hope Nursing Home were: Mrs. George Frazier, Mrs. Jerry Owen, and Mrs. Grandison Royston, Jr. Mrs. J. W. Branch, Mrs. Vincent Foster, and Mrs. Crit Stuart, Jr. were hostesses at the Branch Nursing Home. Ice cream and cup cakes were served. Mrs. Al Graves, Mrs. William Duckett, Mrs. John Wilson, and Mrs. Walter Yerhalen, Jr. made the cup cakes.

Coming, Going

Mrs. John Morris, Branson,

Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Woolford, Springfield, Mo., have been recent guests of their aunts, Mrs. McRae Cox and Miss Gola Stark, and of the Jerry Garrett family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McClanahan, Kathy and Pat, Dallas, spent Thanksgiving with Misses Florence and Dell McClanahan. Arriving Thursday of this week were Mrs. Leonard Arnold and grandson, Leonard, 111, of Austin, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Truax and family, Monroe, La., were guests last week of her mother, Mrs. Dewey Camp.

The R. L. Ponder, Jr. family, Sulphur Springs, Tex., spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ponder, Sr. and other relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Henry went to Little Rock Thanksgiving to see Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Dewey and the son.

The Rev. and Mrs. Johnie Beasley and family returned home Wednesday from Palestine, Tex., and a holiday visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Shelton, Rolla, Mo., have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Wayne Ray, Mr. Ray, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Griffin had as Turkey Day guests their sons, Tommy, an instructor in sociology at Southwestern College in Springfield, Mo., and David, a student at HSTC in Arkadelphia.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!

This column is for young people their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help US!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush-off.

Send your teenage questions to Helen Help US!, this newspaper.

Dear Helen: I have two problems. First I am very much overweight, which makes me look older than 19. I just can't lose, have been tubby all my life.

Second, all the fellows I seem to attract are deadbeats. Most are around 25, without money, car or even decent lodgings.

They're usually in debt up to their ears.

I'm not rich, but I do have a job, and it never ceases to amaze me at the audacity of these moochers when they ask me to pay their way, or give them money. When I don't, I never see them again, which suits me fine. Isn't there any other kind of man? — Y. G.

Dear Y: I'll give it to you straight: the reflects latch on to you because they figure a tubby gal may be so grateful for a man she'll help support them. With the aid of a doctor (not a diet clinic!) you can trim down, if you really care about your looks and your future. But, remember, "Where there's no will, there's a weigh." It takes a lot of "caring" to reverse the habits of 19 food-centered years. — H.

Dear Helen: My boy friend and I broke up last month and we decided to stay good friends. But this kind of friendship is ridiculous!

You see, he likes another girl another girl and is forever asking me to find out things about her. He calls me up and talks about nothing but her. The other night I cut him short and started talking about a boy I think I like and he hung off fast by saying he had some homework to do.

I don't want to hurt his feelings and I do want to keep his friendship, but how can I politely let him know his new girl friend leaves me cold? TIRED OF IT ALL

Dear TOIA: Keep changing the subject—and if he's too dense to take the hint tell him you're not good at love/advice — and get back to your homework. — H.

BLABBERMOUTHS

Dear Helen: At a slumber party Truth or Consequences game I choose "truth," and they asked, "Who is your secret love." Well, I've been crazy about this boy I'll call Bill for three months, but nobody knew, especially Bill. So it just slipped out—I said "Bill" before I thought. He's very girl-shy. I'm considered pretty popular, I guess. He was just beginning to notice me.

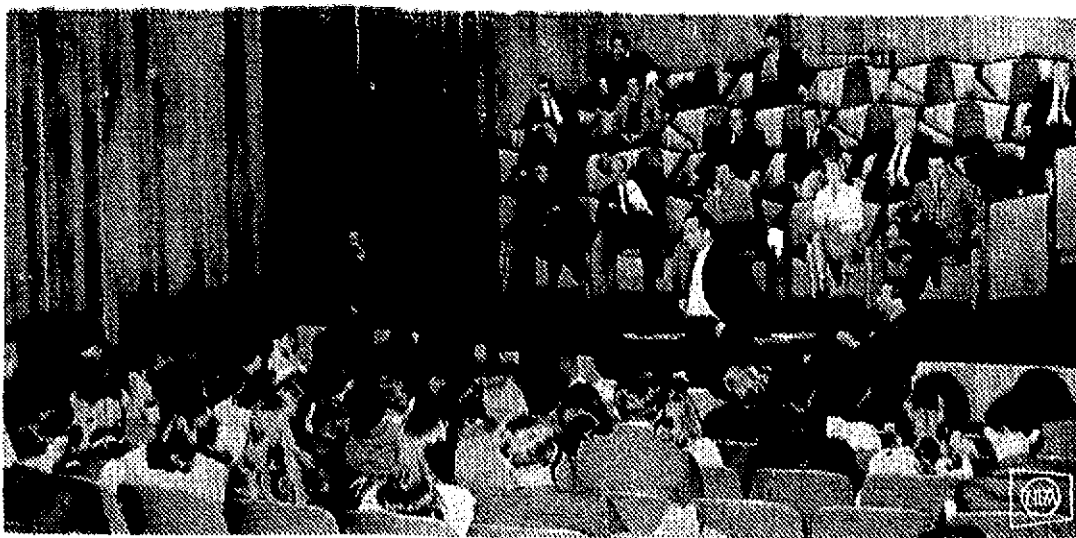

It was all over school next day, and, of course, Bill got kidded. Now he won't even look at me. He probably thinks I said it just to embarrass him or make fun of him. What shall I do?—

BLABBERMOUTH

Dear Blab: Try truth. Send Bill a note of apology for causing him embarrassment and explain his name—"just slipped out, because you really ARE interesting guy I'd like to have as a friend." Who knows, this may be the beginning of a beautiful...

Hereafter, remember: Say unto others only what you don't mind having repeated — and this goes double for slumber parties!—H.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of Hope Star. Copyright, 1966, King Syndicate,

AN INVESTIGATION of "The Investigation" takes place as the cast of the play sits on stage after a New York performance while students from diverse backgrounds ask questions about the Peter Weiss drama. The play is based on court records of the Frankfurt war crimes trials at the end of World War II.

Nixon Says Home Front Cut Certain

NEW YORK (AP)—President Johnson is reading the congressional election results as indicative of a turn to the right in American thinking and will follow through with cutbacks in spending and the "Great Society" program, says Richard M. Nixon.

"To be more conservative than the President," Nixon said Monday night, will be a difficult job for Republicans in Congress. "You will see when he presents his budget that the President has read the election returns—and don't underestimate the ability of President Johnson."

Rome Plans Street Paved With Glass

ROME (AP)—There's a plan afoot to pave Rome's swankiest shopping street with glass. If it works, tourists in Via Frattina could stare down in to the ruins of one of the most lavish villas any Roman ever built with the wealth of conquests.

Archaeologists believe that beneath the street is the villa of that bon vivant, Lucius Licinius Lucullus, the general who conquered Armenia and governed part of Asia in the 1st century B.C.

The sumptuous villa and its gardens began under what is now the Piazza di Spagna and extended 942 feet, the full length of what is now Via Frattina.

It was wrecked by invading Vandals, then covered by the silt of floods from the Tiber. Every time a sewer or telephone tunnel has been dug in the area, broken columns and parts of mosaic have been found.

The campaign to put it all under glass was started by Dr. Vittore Querel, owner of an art gallery. He says he and all other shop owners along the street might be able to cover a large share of the cost.

All ruins beneath the street would be uncovered and restored. Then it would be paved with glass.

Leftovers with Flair
Slices of roast veal or lamb may be served as an encore if heated in the oven (350° F.) with seasoned sour cream. Add celery or garlic salt. Worcestershire sauce or crumbled blue cheese to the cream and spread over the meat. Serve in just this way when reheated (from 20 to 30 minutes), or serve on toast English muffins, a bed of rice or noodles. Garnish with watercress, parsley, celery tops and speed crabapples or speed prunes.

Keep Cooky Jar Well Supplied

School time is also cooky time if there are youngsters in your home. They do double or even triple duty if they go into lunch boxes and then serve as after school and bedtime snacks.

Oatmeal Crispies
1 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
3/4 cup lard
1 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup granulated sugar
2 eggs, beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 cups quick-cooking rolled oats
1/2 cup chopped nuts

Sift together flour, salt, and soda. Thoroughly cream together lard and sugars. Add eggs and vanilla. Beat well. Add sifted dry ingredients and mix well. Add rolled oats and nuts. Mix. Form into rolls 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Wrap in waxed paper. Chill thoroughly. Cut into 1/4 inch slices. Place on ungreased baking sheet and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 10 minutes or until lightly browned. Yield: 8 dozen.

School time is also cooky time if there are youngsters in your home. They do double or even triple duty if they go into lunch boxes and then serve as after school and bedtime snacks.

Oatmeal Crispies
1 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
3/4 cup lard
1 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup granulated sugar
2 eggs, beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 cups quick-cooking rolled oats
1/2 cup chopped nuts

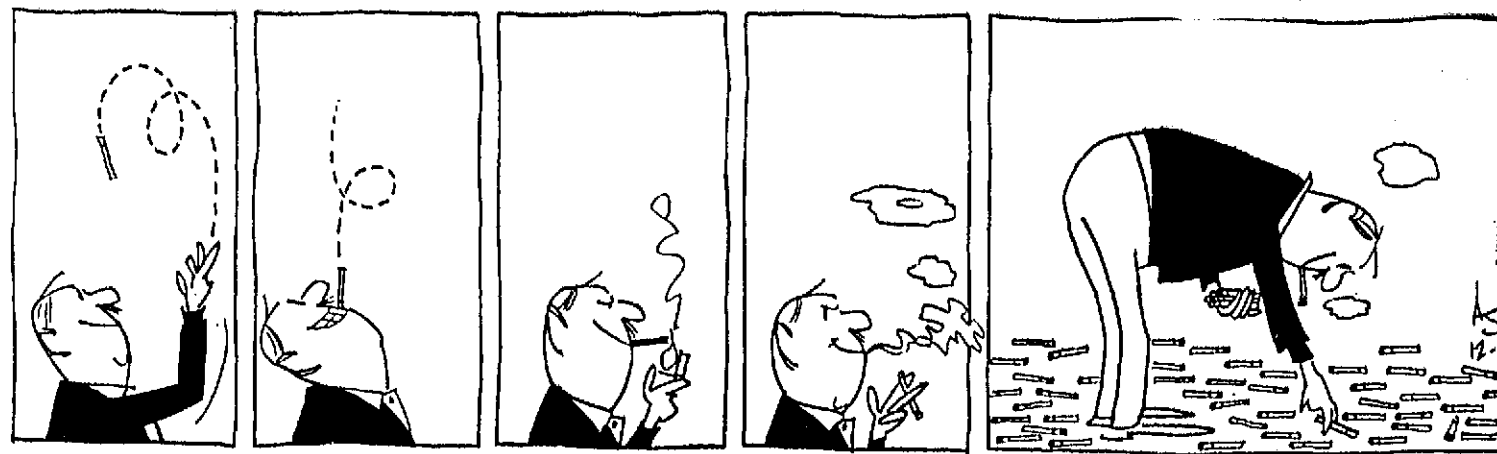

Sift together flour, salt, and soda. Thoroughly cream together lard and sugars. Add eggs and vanilla. Beat well. Add sifted dry ingredients and mix well. Add rolled oats and nuts. Mix. Form into rolls 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Wrap in waxed paper. Chill thoroughly. Cut into 1/4 inch slices. Place on ungreased baking sheet and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 10 minutes or until lightly browned. Yield: 8 dozen.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The sea floor is literally an untapped gold mine, according to The World Almanac. Gold, oil, phosphate, diamonds, chromite, platinum and many other valuable elements lie under the oceans of the world. New methods of prospecting, combined with submarine geology, may someday make these potentially rich deposits of useful minerals available to all nations.

WIN AT BRIDGE

How to Finesse Opponent's Ace

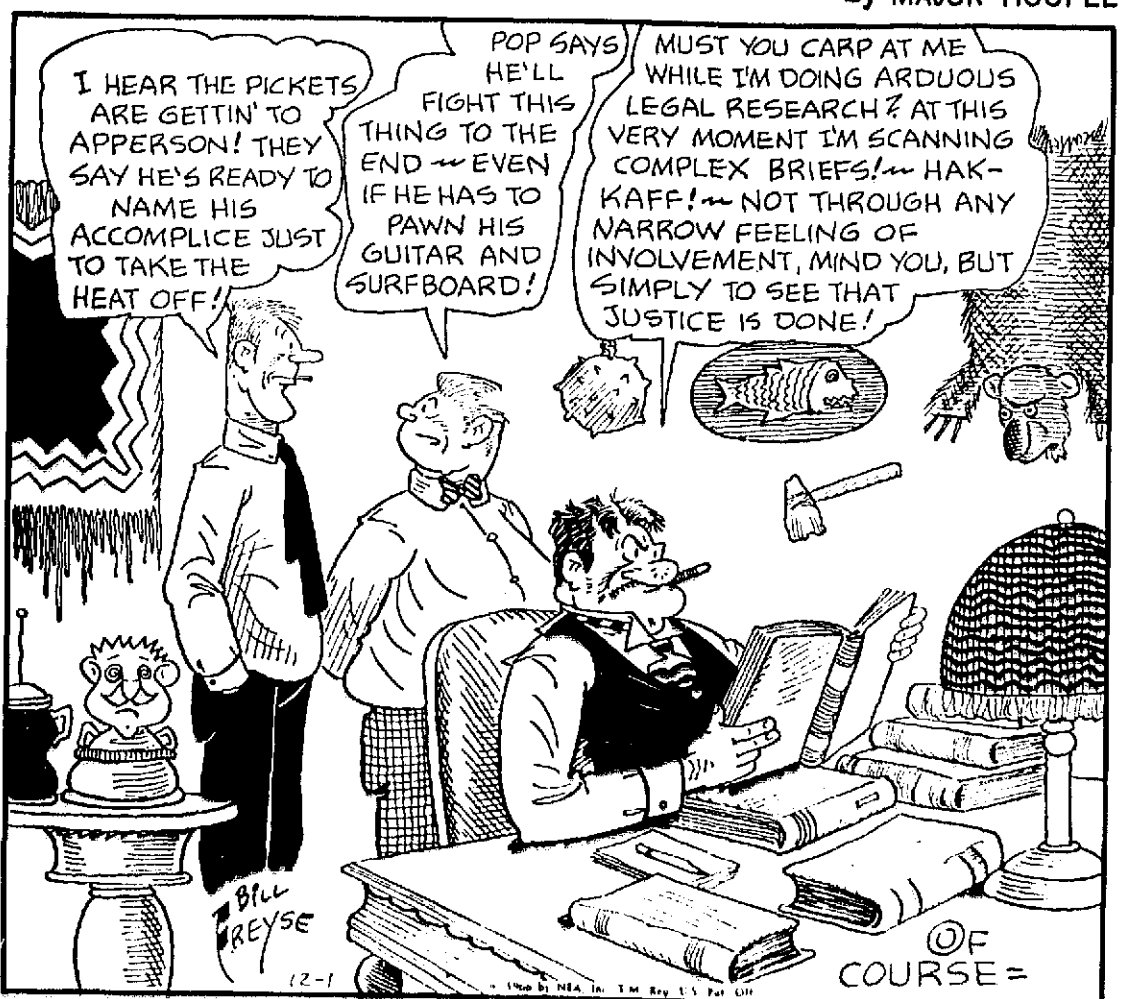

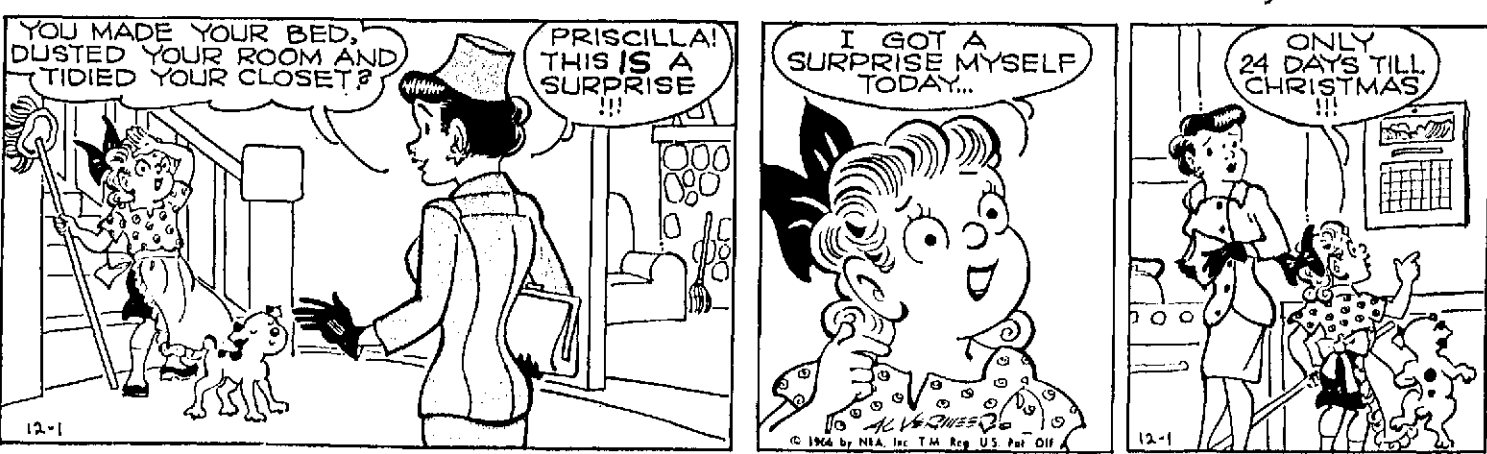

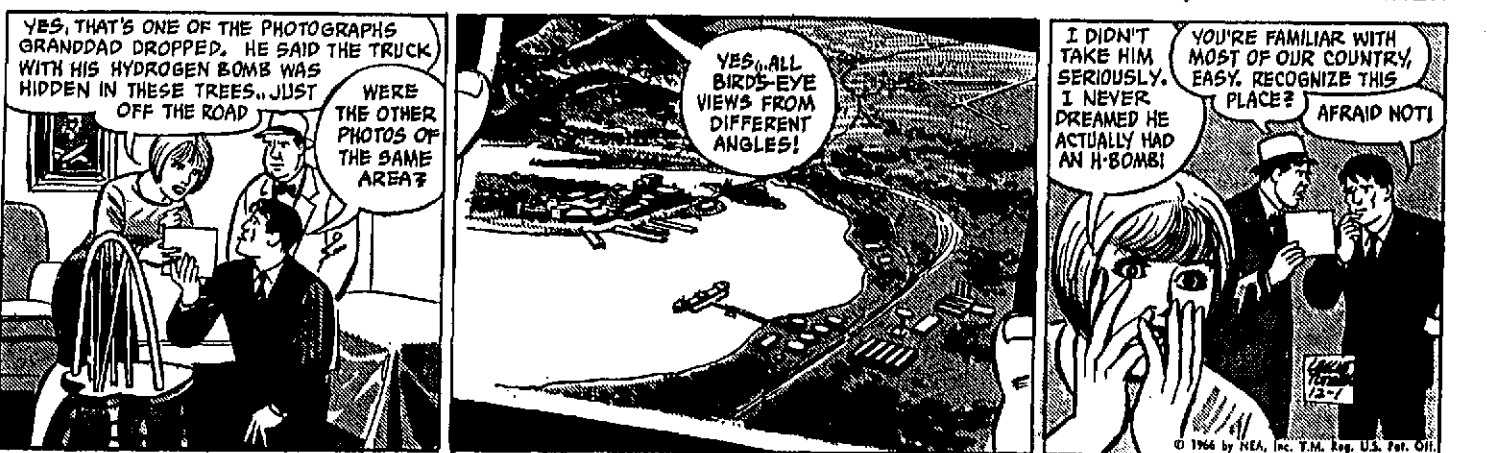

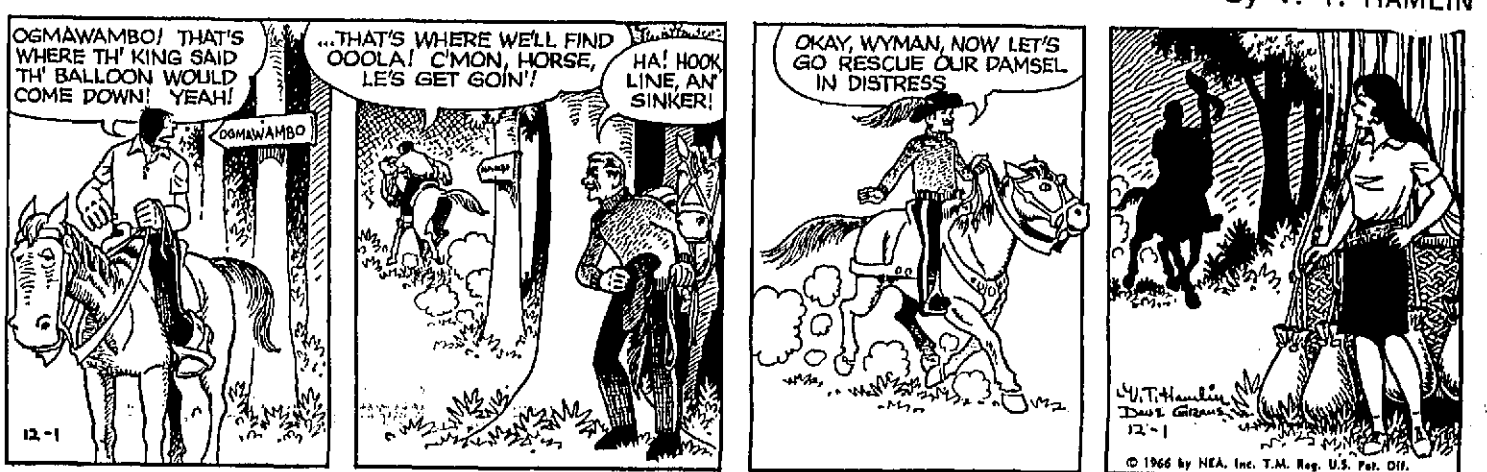

By Oswald & James Jacoby Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

We don't know whether today's hand should qualify as strategy in bridge or just highway robbery. South was the late Fred Kaplan, a brilliant lawyer and avid bridge player who believed that the element of surprise would win both lawsuits and bridge tournaments.

Fred's two no-trump call illustrates the element of surprise. Any other good player would respond two clubs or maybe one heart and try to steer eventual no-trump play to his partner, but not Fred. He liked to play all hands and he hoped that he would get the benefit of a heart or club lead if he concealed strength in both suits.

Such hopes are usually ill founded. Somehow or other opponents lead their best suits which are likely to be your worst and West opened the five of spades.

Fred looked over dummy and studied the opening lead. It was surely fourth best which meant that West held four, five or six spades and that East would hold at least three. The situation looked hopeless. Fred could run eight tricks but that would be all.

He could accept one down if he wished but Fred was not a man to accept one down. He saw one chance to make his contract. It will risk a set of several tricks but Fred didn't care.

He won the first spade trick with dummy's ace and led the jack of hearts. What would you do if you were East? This East assumed that Fred had the king of spades and played low. Fred hopped up with his king. It held and his one down had been changed to game made.

Here's a Look at Pro Grid Picture

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK (AP)—A long-range look at 1967 in the National Football League presents a strong possibility of a Cleveland-Dallas game for the Eastern Conference title and a Green Bay-San Francisco tilt for the Western Conference crown.

The two winners would meet for the NFL title with the survivor meeting the winner of the American Football League championship.

The NFL owners realigned the conferences Wednesday when they placed the new New Orleans franchise in the East and the Atlanta Falcons in the West. Each eight-club conference was split into two four-club divisions.

After much deliberation the owners came up with a grouping of Cleveland, Pittsburgh, New York and St. Louis in the Federal Division of the East. The Capital Division of the East will include Dallas, Philadelphia, Washington and New Orleans.

In 1968 New York will shift to the Capitol and New Orleans to the Federal in a compromise move designed to give all eight of the Eastern teams a chance to play the Giants home and home in one of the two years.

The Green Bay Packers will be joined by the Chicago Bears, Minnesota Vikings and Detroit Lions in the Central Division of the Western Conference. San Francisco, Los Angeles, Baltimore and Atlanta will comprise the Coastal Division of the West. Francisco, Los Angeles, Baltimore and Atlanta will comprise the Coastal Division of the West.

The Western Conference will remain in a 1967 and 1968 in contrast to the 1968 shift of New York and New Orleans from one division to the other in the East.

No decision has been made on the 1969 alignment. The NFL and AFL are due to merge into one league 1970.

While the NFL owners worked on their own problems, the AFL owners met separately and discussed the merger terms that were agreed upon last June.

It is expected that the joint committee recommendations on the date, site and financial arrangements for the Super Bowl game, the mechanics of the common draft and rule changes will be made to the leagues separately today.

The most likely date and site of the Super Bowl still is Sunday, Jan. 15 at the Los Angeles Coliseum, pending agreement on television contracts.

Head Coaches Named for Senior Bowl

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Coaches Norm Van Brocklin of the Minnesota Vikings and Otto Graham of the Washington Redskins were named today as head coaches for the 18th annual Senior Bowl all-star football game Jan. 7.

Van Brocklin will tutor the North squad, Graham the South. Senior Bowl officials said the two squads will be named within a week or two.

Defeat Makes Prize Winner Tough Choice

By GORDON BEARD
BALTIMORE (AP)—The job of covering the Baltimore Bullets gets tougher and tougher for the local news media as the season progresses.

After every home game of the National Basketball Association team, a poll is taken to determine the outstanding Bullets player and the winner gets a gift from a men's clothing store.

There was even more riding on Wednesday night's vote. The Jewish War Veterans, who attended the game, donated a plaque which will be awarded when they visit the Civic Center again next season.

But with the Bullets playing even worse than their 4-20 record indicates, losing to the Los Angeles Lakers 126-111, the reporters and broadcasters were hard put to come up with a winner.

In a preliminary ballot, taken while the Bullets were struggling to reduce a 30-point deficit to a more respectable margin, one vote was cast for Alex, the Bullets' dachshund mascot.

But with the Bullets' management insisting on a fair vote, Mel Counts finally emerged as the winner. That, in itself, gave some indication of how the Bullets were playing.

Counts, a 7-footer who was obtained in an off-season trade to bolster the Baltimore attack, has been spending more time on the bench than in the game.

But the Baltimore collapse came so early Wednesday, Counts was summoned by Coach Buddy Jeannette while the first quarter was still in progress.

Actually, Counts deserved the award. He scored 15 points while hitting seven of nine field goal attempts and led Baltimore with 14 rebounds, playing 20 minutes.

Jeannette, the Baltimore general manager who took over as coach early in November after Mike Farmer was fired, was disgruntled after the game.

Asked if he had carried out his threat to levy fines, Jeannette said, "I'm afraid to fine them. They might quit."

Hagan, New Rice Coach, Is a Critic

HOUSTON (AP)—Harold (Bo) Hagan, Rice University's new head football coach, says college football has become so stereotyped that Saturday's victories are dictated by personnel and execution.

Hagan, 41, a Rice backfield coach 11 years, was named Wednesday to succeed Jess Neely, who has retired after 40 years as a head coach, the last 27 at Rice.

Both Hagan and Neely appeared at a news conference where Hagan's selection was announced.

"Today's game is a blend of running and throwing," Hagan told newsmen. "Defense is such now you cannot operate without throwing the ball."

"Actually, there are no secrets in college football now. It adds up on Saturdays that you'll win on personnel and execution."

The 69-year-old Neely coached his 400th and final game last Saturday when his Owls lost 21-14 to Baylor. His 40-year record is 14-124-10.

Knowles Is Traded for 2nd Time

By MURRAY CHASS
PITTSBURGH (AP)—Relief pitcher Darold Knowles, who unwittingly helped trigger the trade of the year—decade? century?—when he changed uniforms the last time, may be at it again.

Knowles was traded for the second time within a year Wednesday night, going from Philadelphia to Washington for center fielder Don Lock, and strangely enough that set the Baltimore Orioles on the trail of possibly satisfying their primary need—an experienced starting pitcher.

As soon as personnel director Harry Dalton of the Orioles heard about the trade, he tried to reach officials of both the Phillies and the Senators.

He didn't get them immediately, but he knew what he was after—pitching help in the form of Philadelphia's Ray Culp or Washington's Pete Richert—and he intended to pursue it today.

The Orioles were in a similar situation last December—only they were seeking an accomplished outfielder then. They were having trouble securing the player they wanted, though, until Dec. 6 when they shipped Knowles to the Phillies with Jackie Brandt for relief pitcher Jack Baldschun.

The Cincinnati Reds, who hadn't been satisfied with the previous Orioles' offer, suddenly perked up. They liked Baldschun.

So three days later, hardly time enough to let him get used to his new employer, Baldschun was on his way to the Reds with Milt Pappas and Dick Simpson, and Frank Robinson was on his way to the Triple Crown.

"Knowles was the start of a three-club chain of events that brought Robinson to us," Dalton recalled.

Now Dalton had his eye on several pitchers.

"Our need right now is a starting pitcher with major league experience," Dalton explained. "We have a lot of kids—such as Tom Phoebus—but we'd like the protection of an experienced major leaguer."

Meanwhile, a one-time Oriole pitcher, Chuck Estrada, found his way into the New York Mets' chain when he was purchased by their Williamsport farm club of the Eastern League.

While the Knowles deal and the purchase of Estrada were the only transactions Wednesday, the New York Yankees continued to pursue shortstop Maury Willis from the Los Angeles Dodgers and reportedly were offering one of two pitchers—southpaw Al Downing or right-hander Jim Bouton.

Olympics Head Blasts Football

HAYWARD, Calif. (AP)—Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee, blasted today the "disgraceful fraud" of college athletics and proposed a wide range of reforms.

The 76-year-old Brundage, in a speech prepared for delivery at dedication of California State College's new physical education building, particularly rapped college football.

However, Brundage, of Chicago, also noted that "in the Olympic Games we have almost reached the conclusion that sports with a vast commercialized development... cannot be kept amateur at an international or even at a national level under modern conditions, and must be dropped."

Presumably the reference was to such team sports as hockey, basketball and soccer, and boxing—all on the Olympic program.

"They have become a business and let us admit it," said Brundage. "Perhaps the colleges will also reach this conclusion. There are plenty, or even better, games that have not yet become commercialized to take their place—lacrosse, field hockey, rugby, volleyball, land hockey, and so forth."

As for football, Brundage explored the "plethora of bowl games" called for limited seasons and ban of spring practice and "red-shirting" tactics, and suggested barring coaches from the stadium on the day of a game.

"Now players can't even think for themselves," said Brundage. "They are all on athletic scholarships and have to do as they are told. It is a chess game between the coaches—the players are robots. They are hired hands, not free men. Let's give the game back to the players."

Miners Face Test in Their First Game

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Are the Texas Western Miners well-headed over being the national collegiate basketball champions? The answer may come tonight at the opening of the 1967 season when the Miners play at home in El Paso against Sam Houston State.

The Miners won the 1966 championship last March by upsetting Kentucky in the NCAA tournament final and were rated No. 2 to UCLA in this season's preseason Associated Press poll primarily because of UCLA's fabulous sophomore Lew Alcindor.

Don Haskins, the Texas Western coach, has back his stars, Bobby Joe Hill, Willie Cager, Nevil Shed, David Lattin and Willie Worsley, but "this is the worst we've looked in four years," he said after a recent practice session.

"They think somebody is going to give them something," Haskins said. "I think we have some well-headed players."

Sam Houston is not listed in the major category, however, and the Miners are favored to chalk up victory No. 29 in their last 30 games even if they are not up to their 1966 standard.

In addition to Texas Western, five other teams in the AP preseason Top Ten open tonight. Abilene Christian is at New Mexico, No. 6; Albuquerque is at Houston, No. 7; Vanderbilt is at Western Kentucky, No. 8; Clemson is at North Carolina No. 9 and George Washington is at Cincinnati, No. 10.

Duke, No. 4, opens Friday against Virginia Tech at Charlottesville, UCLA, No. 1, opens at home Saturday against Southern California, the same day Kentucky, No. 3, plays host to Virginia and Louisville, No. 5, entertains Georgetown, Ky.

Spartans Rated as Favorites

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Michigan State's Spartans rated as favorites today at the opening of the national collegiate soccer championships in California's Memorial Stadium.

Michigan State faced Long Island University in one semifinal match while the University of San Francisco faced Army in the other.

The winners will battle Saturday afternoon for the title.

San Diego Tops Small School Grid

San Diego State, with a perfect record in 10 games, is the 1966 small-college football champion. The Aztecs, unranked a year ago when they had an 8-2 record, were overwhelming choices in this season's final Associated Press poll today.

San Diego State received 14 first-place votes from among the 16 selectors on the national panel of sports writers and broadcasters. Tennessee State, the runner-up in the balloting, had the other two votes for the top position.

The voters who placed Tennessee State in the No. 1 spot made San Diego State No. 2. Thus, the Aztecs collected 158 points. Tennessee State accumulated 126 on the basis of 10 for a first-place vote, 9 for second etc.

Montana State finished in third place. Northwestern State of Louisiana is fourth followed by Parsons, Arkansas State, Muskingum, North Dakota, North Dakota State, Wayneburg and Weber State, the latter two teams in a 10th place tie.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, regular season records and total points:

1. San Diego St. (14)	158
2. Tennessee St. (2)	126
3. Montana St.	113
4. Northwestern, La. St.	72
5. Parsons	70
6. Arkansas St.	43

Bobkittens Win Over Louisianans

By RALPH RUTON
Wednesday night the Hope Bobkittens jumped into an early lead and whipped the Plain Dealing (La.) junior boys by a score of 42-20 in the Bradley Junior basketball tournament.

After taking an 8-6 advantage in the first quarter, the Kittens began to open up. With Parker Powell, who scored 8 points in the second period spearheading the attack, the local boys moved out to a 23-12 lead at the half. Ronny Brown, who had 22 points for the night, led the Kittens on a 10-points spree in the third quarter and they were never headed. The reserves played most of the final period and kept pouring it on till the final gun.

Tonight the Bobkittens returned to Bradley for a semi-final game with the host team. Game time is 9 p.m.

Knicks Beat Cincinnati—Finally

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Oscar Robertson and Flynn Robinson did their best to prevent it, but the New York Knicks finally ended their Cincinnati jinx.

Not since November, 1962 had the Knicks won a National Basketball Association game in Cincinnati, but thanks to the clutch shooting of Walt Bellamy, they won one Wednesday night. They beat the Royals 119-115.

Cincinnati came back from a 18-point deficit early in the fourth quarter to get within a point with 2:10 left in the game. Robertson and Robinson led the way, scoring 19 of the last 20 Royal points.

But then Bellamy, who finished with a season high of 37 points, put in four quick points, sending the Knicks out of reach.

In other NBA games, Philadelphia took Detroit, 128-119, and Los Angeles beat Baltimore, 126-111.

8 Plucked From Sea by Helicopter

ALPENA, Mich. (AP) — An expected pause in a gale-force snow squall gave a Coast Guard helicopter time to pluck eight German seamen from a stranded ship moments before she broke up in storm-whipped Lake Huron late Tuesday.

The squall closed in again shortly after the last man had been pulled off the Nordmeer, a steel-laden German freighter grounded since Nov. 19 on Thunder Bay Shoal.

"God was real nice to us," said Lt. Jack Rittichier of Barberton, Ohio, copilot on the helicopter. "The storm broke as we moved in. All of a sudden things cleared up. As soon as the last man was picked up, it began to snow again."

The rescue took 28 minutes. For 12 hours before that, the Nordmeer's master, Captain Ernst-George Steinbeck and seven of his crewmen had borne the brunt of 35 to 40 knot winds, 10 times gusting to 60 knots along the shoal 12 miles east of Alpena.

The helicopter was piloted by Lt. Lonnie Mixon, of Mobile, Ala. Aviation Mechanic 2.C. D.A. C. Nofftz of Joliet, Ill., was another crew member.

As the helicopter neared the stricken ship, Cmdr. George Weinstein of the Coast Guard cutter Mackinaw was preparing a sea rescue effort.

The helicopter made two trips, carrying four men each time.

"The keel was broken and the main deck was awash when we left her," Weinstein said of the Nordmeer. The Mackinaw took the seamen to Alpena.

"They were all pretty tired, but in good health," said Weinstein.

The Nordmeer sent out an SOS early Tuesday.

"The last message said the Nordmeer was breaking up and taking water in all hatches," a Coast Guard spokesman said.

Carrying a cargo of coiled steel, the Nordmeer had run aground 11 days ago. The impact tore a long, jagged gash in its bow.

Most of the 40 crew members were flown back to the ship's home port, Hamburg, West Germany. Captain Steinbeck and seven crewmen remained on board to prevent anyone claiming the ship for salvage.

If you find the back of that duck or chicken you are roasting doesn't get brown enough to suit you, try turning the bird several times during the roasting process. Moderate or high temperatures (although they may result in a fat-spattered skin) also help to produce crisp skin on a roasted bird.

In Cantonese Shrimp and Beans, another new recipe from Seafood Slimmers, shrimp and green beans are cooked and served in a sauce flavored with chicken broth, onion, and garlic, then highlighted with a touch of ginger.

Dieting can bring big dividends, but it requires planning, imagination, and foods that are low in calories but high in protein, vitamins, and minerals.

CANTONESE SHRIMP AND BEANS

1 1/2 pounds frozen raw, peeled, deveined shrimp
1 1/2 teaspoons chicken stock base
1/4 cup thinly sliced green onion
1 package (9 ounces) frozen cut green beans
1 cup boiling water
1 tablespoon cornstarch
1 tablespoon salad oil
1 tablespoon cold water
1 clove garlic, crushed
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon ginger
Dash pepper

Thaw frozen shrimp. Dissolve chicken stock base in boiling water. Cook onion, garlic, and shrimp in oil for 3 minutes, stirring frequently. If necessary, add a little of the chicken broth to prevent sticking. Stir in salt, ginger, pepper, green beans, and chicken broth. Cover and simmer 5 to 7 minutes longer or until beans are cooked but still slightly crisp. Combine cornstarch and water. Add cornstarch mixture to shrimp and cook until thick and clear, stirring constantly. Serves 6. Approximately 130 calories in each serving.

Jordan King Airs Enmity to Israel

Editor's note — AP correspondent Roy Essoyan interviewed King Hussein of Jordan today on the current crisis in the Middle East following an Israeli raid on Jordanian border villages and violent demonstrations in Jordan. Here is his report of the exclusive interview.

By ROY ESSOYAN

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — King Hussein of Jordan told The Associated Press today the Middle East is on the brink of an explosion more dangerous to world peace than the Suez crisis of 1956.

His warning was directed at Israel, the Arab world and the West.

He said his armed forces would strike back at Israel — "and strike extremely hard" — if Israel attacks again across the armistice line.

"Our patience is at an end and we won't stand for any further aggression," he said in an interview at the royal palace in Amman.

Hussein said "there was no justification whatsoever" to Israel's claim that it was retaliating against terrorist raids across the border when it raided Samua and two other Jordanian frontier villages Nov. 13. The raid set off violent demonstrations in west Jordan demanding arms against Israel and denouncing the government for the weakness of its border defenses.

The disturbances were brought under control, possibly temporarily, only when troops of Hussein's tough Arab Legion moved into the area. The army so far has remained loyal to its 31-year-old Sandhurst-trained monarch, as it has through other crises of his 14-year reign.

Hussein charged some of his Arab neighbors were serving Communist ends by calling for his overthrow.

Hussein has enjoyed plenty of popularity among his people, especially when he has espoused Arab nationalist causes, but his pro-Western policies are opposed by his neighbors in Syria and the United Arab Republic and do not arouse the enthusiastic support of the Arab masses.

"I hope our friends in the free world will realize what is at stake here today," the king said. "The tensions built up by the events of the last two weeks have created the most explosive situation since the Suez crisis of 1956, and the results could be even more devastating to the free world."

He said Jordan was threatened on three fronts — by Israel, by the threats and propaganda attacks of some of its Arab neighbors, and by Communist and pro-Communist subversion within its borders.

What They Wear

Police Get Lesson On Wool

The man on the beat will be the best dressed on the street, if the wool industry has its way. Next time you see a perfect crease in your favorite policeman's trousers, chances are he is wearing a uniform of pure virgin wool.

Police chiefs, meeting in Philadelphia for the 73rd annual conference of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, were told this and other uniform facts by the Wool Bureau, Inc.

"An officer's performance and efficiency depends much on policeman will discover in his wool uniform are better appearance, comfort, flame resistance, ruggedness, and ease of care, said the bureau.

Garments the Wool Bureau displayed at the conference have been awarded the "wool mark" denoting a quality tested product made of pure virgin wool.

Whether it's a routine duty like directing traffic, requiring trim fit and free, easy movement...

the ease and freedom of movement that a quality uniform can provide," according to the wool promotion organization, "and may even be responsible for saving his life."

Features of new all wool police uniforms, in addition to permanent crease trousers (now specified by the United States Army for standard all wool enlisted men's uniforms) were demonstrated for the chiefs who are responsible for selection of their forces' uniforms. These include machine washability and drability in wool uniform sweaters.

Qualities that the well-dressed

... Or an emergency like fighting a flash fire, pure virgin wool police uniforms meet all demands. Wool will neither support flame nor melt to cause severe burns.

MYTH AND PATRIOTISM
MONTREAT, N.C. (AP) — Christians "are seldom patriots — at least in the sense in which patriotism connotes a stupid allegiance to the mythology of a nation," William Strangefellow told a Christian-action conference sponsored by the Southern Presbyterian church.

The New York attorney, an episcopalian layman, added that "a Christian is free to be first of all a native-born man in this world, free from the inhibits of nationalhood, even in its 'freighting forms' and that man is free from the transcendence of any one from the blasphemy of a nation to the mythological 'freighting forms' of a nation."

Map Changes Slowly on War Front

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Although more than 360,000 U.S. troops are now in Viet Nam, the map of areas under allied control has changed only slightly and slowly.

American soldiers, often moving swiftly in helicopter thrusts, go more and more frequently into longtime sanctuaries of the enemy. They seek to hunt down the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese, throwing in huge amounts of artillery and aerial bombardment. Then normally, as in the recent Operation Attleboro in Tay Ninh Province, they pull back to their base camps and the map of Viet Nam looks much the same.

Areas of U.S. troop activity have expanded along the demilitarized zone between the two Viet Nams, and in limited areas near the Cambodian border. More American troops are in the field. But the rate of Communist infiltration from the north and recruiting in the south continue, and the maps showing the struggle for control of Viet Nam remain much the same.

As in the past, terms like areas of control are subject to definition. More roads are opened and considered secure when it is felt worthwhile to put well-guarded convoys on them or large numbers of troops to guard them. When this is no longer done, the Viet Cong again controls the roads.

Americans hold their base camp areas in relative security, except for occasional mortar attacks or harassment, but perimeters are extended slowly.

Add slivers of syrup-preserved ginger to applesauce and serve with roast duck, goose, turkey or chicken. If only candied ginger is at hand, wash the pieces of ginger in hot water to remove the sugar coating and to soften before slicing.

0,000 Cubans Behavior of Airlifted Humans Takes into U.S. an Odd Turn

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Nearly 100,000 Cubans have streamed into the United States by a refugee airlift inaugurated a year ago today, and no end is in sight.

Planes loaded with emigrants from Fidel Castro's Communist regime land twice each week at Miami International Airport.

More than 700,000 Cubans for whom applications have been filed are awaiting their turn to come, U.S. officials say. At the present rate, it would take 15 years to complete this migration. Refugees arriving by the sky shuttle say millions would come if they could.

At Freedom House, where refugees live while awaiting transportation to new homes throughout the United States, the topic turned to those left behind in Cuba.

A telephone worker, Jose Antonio Grande, heading with his family for West New York, N.J., said, "Cuba would be left empty if all were permitted to leave."

The Cuban refugee center reported that two-thirds of the newcomers have gone to communities other than Miami, and are self-supporting. The others in Miami's exile colony of nearly 150,000. The nation's Cuban exile population is estimated at 350,000.

The United States picks up the airlift tab, figured by government officials at $750 per flight. At that rate, the year's 508 landings — no planes came during hurricanes — cost $381,000.

State Senate Rules Study to Proceed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Members of the new Senate Committee on Committees said Wednesday that a 1965 state law paved the way for formation of the new committee by authorizing a study of needed rules changes.

Sen. Max Howell of Little Rock said Act 569 of the 1965 legislature directed the Senate Rules Committee to develop changes before the 1967 General Assembly met. Howell said the Rules Committee had created the Committee on Committees to work on committee changes.

Behavior of Humans Takes an Odd Turn

WASHINGTON (AP) — The possibility that anthropologists have unwittingly discovered an aspect of human behavior which could unlock the doors to world peace is under some discussion here.

A number of studies have accumulated in government archives which show that some primitive peoples work off frustrations by banging the ground with sticks.

The significance of this activity for modern man was almost universally overlooked until a political science student detected the extraordinary parallel between ground-pounding and the modern game known as golf.

From this he has postulated — tentatively — the theory that a nation's peace-loving quotient can be accurately established by counting the numbers engaged in golf.

Preliminary investigation indicates that where golfing is widespread no dictatorship can long survive. The anonymous scientist's initial findings are impressive and are here reported for the very first time.

For example, there are no known golf courses in the Soviet Union, Red China, Poland, Romania, Bulgaria or Albania. The number of courses in once-democratic Czechoslovakia has been reduced to two and they are primarily for the use of decadent Western diplomats.

The Communists reportedly object to golf on the grounds that it creates capitalistic class distinctions. Obviously, anyone who plays golf requires considerable capital.

Of equal significance is the fact that the English-speaking peoples, who have a long and unbroken history of self-government, are the world's most avid golfers.

For example, there are 8,667 golf courses in the United States and around eight million golfers. The Australians have approximately 1,100 golf courses and 500,000 practitioners, while the English and Scottish countryside maintains around 1,000 courses for 1.5 million golfers.

The French supposedly have a passion for reason and logic, but the fact remains that their political history has been a turbulent one. This is not particularly surprising, since France has only 80 golf courses and around 7,500 golfers.

One of the rooms at Mamec Caverns, in Missouri, can hold 2,500 persons.

Ethics Code Offered for Officials

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Legislative Council recommended Wednesday that a code of ethics for public officials be drafted for the 1967 legislature's consideration.

The code was one of several important items the council tackled during a busy day, in which it also:

— Recommended turning the Capitol Hill Apartments that were bought a year ago by the state into a state office building at a cost estimated at $600,000.

— Proposed the repeal of all poll tax laws regarding elections and qualifications to vote, but rejected a motion by Rep. Joel Y. Ledbetter of Pulaski County to recommend removal of a law that requires public employees to show proof of having paid the poll taxes before they are paid and makes the tax mandatory before licenses can be issued.

— Recommended creating a group hospitalization and life insurance program for employees of the state and local political subdivisions.

— Gave indications that increases for welfare recipients during the next biennium may not be at the top of priority items.

The council deleted a phrase that the code of ethics be modeled after the stringent Texas code after some members said they thought some Texas provisions might be unduly harsh.

The council's State and Local Government Committee had recommended that the code follow the Texas law, which includes provisions prohibiting an official from accepting work that would limit his independence in his public duties and receiving pay for his official work from any source other than the state.

Sen. Morrell Cathright of Pine Bluff said the Texas provisions seemed to prohibit such circumstances as an insurance man serving in the legislature and voting on insurance bills. Rep. Marion H. Crank of Little River County said the provision against receiving pay for official work from sources other than the state might prevent many persons from serving in the legislature.

"You can be so sure that you will wind up prohibiting persons from serving in the legislature," he said.

The council reviewed the proposed budget of the state Welfare Department, which asks for a total of $120.9 million for each year of the biennium, all but $26.2 million of which will be in federal funds each year. Officials said enough money was in the budget to give two $5 increases in welfare payments.

A. J. (Red) Moss, state welfare commissioner, reviewed the budget for two hours with the legislators. Several wanted to know how much money would be needed to carry out the current program without giving the $5 increases.

Moss said an additional $2 million in state funds was needed to continue the $10 monthly increase given to welfare recipients Oct. 1 and other present programs.

Moss was asked to make another appearance before the council when it begins cutting the budget to point out where it can be reduced with least damage.

The council took no action on three other proposals that could be expected to be controversial in the next legislature.

They are repeal of a provision giving Arkansas firms a five per cent preference over out-of-state companies on governmental purchases; tightening control over the state's licensing boards and commissions, and asking the Highway Department to comply with laws on the sharing of right of way costs on secondary road projects.

Moon Rocket Ground Test Successful

By JOHN S. LANG
BAY SAINT LOUIS, Miss. (AP) — The mightiest rocket booster ever tested by this nation strained against its shackles with a million pounds of thrust today in the first successful captive firing of a flight model.

The S-II, troublesome second stage of the Saturn 5 rocket designed to carry American astronauts to the moon, was ignited four months later than was first scheduled.

Space officials termed the six-minute static test an apparent success and said it occurred within the timetable of the "big picture" — to land a man on the moon by 1970.

At 12:13 a.m. a great yellow flame gushed sideward from the booster's base deflected by a huge shield from curling back on the engine.

Generating 21,000,000 horsepower, as powerful as 90,000 automobiles, the engines made the earth tremble for more than a mile.

The sound, a dull and deep roar punctuated by crackling noises, buffeted clothing of viewers 5,000 feet away. It made breathing roughen, made it exhilarating like speeding over a dip in the road. It gave the insides of ears an itching sensation.

It was awesome.

At 12:19 a.m. it ceased. There were some murmurs of excitement, but many spectators continued to stare before turning away.

The who's who of American rocketry — including Dr. Werner von Braun, director of the Marshall Space Flight Center in Huntsville, Ala., and Maj. Gen. Sam Phillips, director of Project Apollo — saw the test from the central control tower at the Mississippi test facility.

Phillips told a news conference that all data from computers would have to be assessed before it would be known whether the test went perfectly.

He said the four-month delay did not mean the nation is behind schedule in the race to the moon, earlier schedules had called for the complete Saturn 5 to be launched during the first half of next year, he said, and now plans call for a test flight in the second quarter of 1967.

The firing test simulated the duties of the S-II, which will be to ignite after the first stage takes it to an altitude of about 40 miles. It will push the 47-ton Apollo moonship to 100 miles high at speed of over 4,800 miles an hour.

Another static firing will be made in 10 days. If that one is successful, the stage will be shipped to Cape Kennedy to take its place atop the even larger first stage.

The Saturn 5, when assembled, will be more than 300 feet tall.

Farriery

Farriery is the art of shoeing horses and farrier is another name for blacksmith. Since farriers learned to treat wounds and diseases of horses, farriery came to include the veterinary art, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Most people agree that there is no warmer way of giving "Merry Christmas" to friends and neighbors than a gift you've baked yourself.

Almond Crunchies are crisp and buttery bars. Coconut Jewel cookies with bits of red and green candied cherries are rolled in flaked coconut.

ALMOND CRUNCHIES

- 1 cup butter or margarine, soft
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 1 egg yolk
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 cup quick rolled oats, uncooked

Heat oven to moderate (375 degrees). Beat butter and sugars together until creamy. Beat in eggs. Sift together flour, soda and salt. Add to creamed mixture, blending well. Stir in cherries and oats.

Shape dough to form 1-inch balls. Roll in coconut. Place on ungreased cookie sheets. Bake in preheated oven (375 degrees) 12 to 15 minutes. Makes 6 dozen.

Beat egg white until frothy. Push over top of cookie dough. Sprinkle with almonds; lightly press almonds into dough. Bake in preheated oven (375 degrees) about 15 minutes. Cut in bars while warm. Makes 6 dozen.

COCONUT JEWEL COOKIES

- 1 cup butter or margarine, soft
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon soda
- 1 cup quartered red candied cherries

ALMOND CRUNCHIES, Coconut jewel cookies.

- 1/2 cup quartered green candied cherries
- 2 cups rolled oats (quick or old-fashioned, uncooked)
- One 3 1/2-oz. can flaked coconut

Heat oven to moderate (375 degrees). Beat butter and sugars together until creamy. Beat in eggs. Sift together flour, soda and salt. Add to creamed mixture, blending well. Stir in cherries and oats.

Shape dough to form 1-inch balls. Roll in coconut. Place on ungreased cookie sheets. Bake in preheated oven (375 degrees) 12 to 15 minutes. Makes 6 dozen.

DATE-STUFFED YAMS

- (Makes 4 servings)
- 4 medium Louisiana yams
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 2 tablespoons milk
- 1 tablespoon brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon each: ground cardamom, cinnamon
- 1/2 cup snipped dates

Bake yams in 400-degree (hot) oven 15 minutes; reduce heat to 375 degrees (moderate) oven, bake 45 minutes longer or until tender. Scoop out yams, leaving 1/4-inch shells; reserve shells. Mash yams with butter, milk, sugar, lemon juice and seasonings. Fold in dates. Return to shells and bake in 375-degree (moderate) oven 15 minutes or until heated through.

YAM AND CHICKEN PUFF

- (Makes 4 servings)
- 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed cream of chicken soup
- 1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs
- 1 package (5 ounces) instant mashed Louisiana yams, prepared according to package directions (omit butter and seasoning)
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon thyme
- 1/2 teaspoon coarsely ground black pepper
- 1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted
- 3 eggs, separated

In mixing bowl combine prepared yams, soup, bread crumbs, slightly beaten egg yolks, seasonings and butter. Beat until well-blended. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Fold yam mixture into egg whites. Pour into buttered 1 1/2-quart baking dish. Bake in 350-degree (moderate) oven 1 hour.

Pulitzer AP Photographer Noel Dies

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Frank E. (Pappy) Noel, Associated Press photographer who earned the Pulitzer Prize in a career that spanned four continents, died Tuesday night after a long illness. He was 61.

Noel succumbed to a stroke almost two months after entering J. Hillis Miller Medical Center. He underwent brain surgery shortly after the stroke.

Pappy won a Pulitzer Prize in 1942 with a dramatic lifeboat picture of a Lascar seaman begging for water. The shot was taken as Noel drifted in a lifeboat in the Indian Ocean after his ship had been torpedoed as he fled the surrender of Singapore.

Noel had a knack for being where the action was. He was in Southeast Asia on a round-the-world photographic assignment when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor.

He stayed to cover the Malay-an jungle campaign in words and front-page pictures.

He later covered the war in Burma and India. After the war he was assigned to the Mediterranean area where he spent four years watching the Trans-Jordan conflict from behind his camera.

Noel was registered at the King David Hotel in Jerusalem in 1948 when a terrorist's bomb destroyed his equipment and personal effects. But Noel was at the front taking pictures.

His next assignment took him to Berlin where he watched the cold war tension develop. The Korean War erupted and he was on the front lines a month later, after volunteering by cable to New York.

Shortly after his arrival, Noel was trapped with a Marine outfit near the Changjin Reservoir. The Marines fought their way free and Pappy's pictures showed the action exclusively in newspapers around the globe.

The Marines commended him in a letter to New York and said he "personally risked his life many times" to get his pictures. He continued to photograph front line action for two more months, scoring repeated beats with his graphic account of the war. Then he was captured while attempting to get help for a trapped motor convoy.

Pappy didn't let confinement in a prison camp prevent him from recording the war. A camera was smuggled to him by AP correspondents covering the truce talks and he managed to sneak out photos of captured United Nations forces.

Noel, a native of Dalhart, Tex., embarked on his career 41 years ago with the Chicago Daily News.

Before joining AP in 1937, Pappy covered the Mexican revolution as a freelancer. He also served as an aerial photography instructor for the Army, and was employed by the Washington Post, Wichita Eagle, Kansas City Star and Oklahoma City News.

After his release from the Korean prison, Noel returned to New York. He was sent to Tampa in 1958 and finished his career in Tallahassee, retiring last May 14.

He is survived by his widow, Evelyn G. Noel. Funeral arrangements were pending.

Swing Into Party Time

A whirl of excitement is yours for the making from this Butterick pattern #4185—with jewel neckline, long semi-fitted bodice and dancing circular skirt. The nylon coil zipper—Talon's Zephyr—down the back insures the smooth swing and perfect fit. Like a "pro," press as you sew, using a press cloth over the zipper area. And when a party calls, you're ready to swing into the fun.

a pledge from the management of A&P

What we are about to say is not new. Matter of fact, it's over 100 years old. A&P IS DEDICATED TO BRINGING THE MOST GOOD FOOD, TO THE MOST PEOPLE, FOR THE LEAST AMOUNT OF MONEY. That is the basis on which our company has grown and prospered over the years. We think it's important during this period of time to reiterate that pledge. We want there to be no doubt in your mind about our policy with respect to food costs. We want you to know we are concerned. We want you to know we're doing our level best. We want you to know that above all, "We Care... About You."
